

Possibilities of Anti-Corruption Education in a School of General Education: Methodical Materials

This methodical publication was prepared using materials of projects „Education against Corruption“(2002-2003) and “Development and Dissemination of Programmes of Anti-Corruption Education” (2004).

Projects Coordinator:

Modern Didactics Center

Projects were supported by:

Open Society Fund-Lithuania

Royal Danish Embassy in Lithuania

Foundation for Education Change

Projects Consultants:

Arne Nielsen, PLS Rambøll Management, Denmark

Evaldas Bakonis, Center for Education Development, Lithuania

dr. Vaiva Vaicekauskienė, Center for Education Development, Lithuania

Artūras Paliušis, Special Investigation Service of the Republic of Lithuania

Aida Martinkėnienė, Special Investigation Service of the Republic of Lithuania

Ramunė Paukštienė, Special Investigation Service of the Republic of Lithuania

Projects Partners:

Special Investigation Service of the Republic of Lithuania

Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Lithuania

Transparency International-Lithuanian Chapter

Compilers of the Publication:

Evaldas Bakonis, Center for Education Development, Lithuania

dr. Vaiva Vaicekauskienė, Center for Education Development, Lithuania

Daiva Penkauskienė, Modern Didactics Center

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	7
ABOUT CORRUPTION IN SHORT	9
What is Corruption?	9
Forms of Corruption	9
Arguments “for” and “against” Corruption	10
What Forms Corruption	11
Anti-Corruption Strategies	12
POSSIBILITIES OF ANTICORRUPTION EDUCATION AT SCHOOL	14
KEY CONCEPTS USED DURING THE ANTI-CORRUPTION TRAINING	16
CONTENT OF ANTI-CORRUPTION EDUCATION AT SCHOOL	19
Narrow and Contextual View	19
Key Topics of Anti-Corruption Education	19
An Integrated Programme of Anti-Corruption Education	20
An Example of Realization of an Integrated Programme of Anti-Corruption Education	22
DIDACTIC PROVISIONS FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF AN INTEGRATED PROGRAMME OF ANTI-CORRUPTION EDUCATION	25
Briefing	25
Establishment of Attitudes	25
Changing of Attitudes	26
Moral and Conventional Perspective	27
Development of Individual Programme for Anti-Corruption Education	29
EXAMPLES OF IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PROGRAMME OF ANTI-CORRUPTION EDUCATION DURING DIFFERENT DISCIPLINES AT SCHOOL	32
History	32
Civic Education and Political Science	47
Ethics and Psychology	68
IMPLEMENTATION OF AN ANTI-CORRUPTION EDUCATION PROGRAMME DURING EXTRA-CURRICULA ACTIVITIES	96
SUPPLEMENTS	117
How to Prepare Teaching Texts According Framework of Critical Thinking	117
Phenomena of Corruption in the World and Lithuania	121
Codes of Ethics	125
READINGS AND SOURCES	174