

International conference
“Developing Critical Thinking and Teacher Training in the XXI th Century –
Opportunities For Change”
February 21-23, 2000 Vilnius, Lithuania

AGENDA

21 February 2000

- 09.00 – 10.00 Registration
- 10.00 – 10.50 Opening the conference. Complimentary speeches
- 10.50 – 11.00 Presentation and discussions on agenda
- 11.00 – 11.30 Coffee brake
- 11.30 – 13.00 Teacher training situation in the XXIth century /plenary session/
The presenter – dr. Christopher Day (Great Britain)
The moderators – dr. Kurt Meredith, dr. Jeannie Steele (USA), dr. Rimantas Želvys (Lithuania)
- 13.00 – 14.00 Lunch
- 14.00 – 15.30 Developing critical thinking in high school – expectations and reality. The presentation of national RWCT projects /plenary session/
- 15.30 – 16.00 Coffee brake
- 16.00 – 17.00 Continuation of presentations
- 17.00 – 18.00 High school and secondary school – communication and collaboration: the presentation of the modelling schools /plenary session/
Presenters: Ausra Drumstiene (Vilnius “Vyturys” primary school, Lithuania)
Jolanta Knyviene (Vilnius S.Daukantas secondary school, Lithuania)
- 18.00 The end of the first day and introduction to the second day

22 February 2000

- 08.00 – 10.00 Lessons observations and workshops in Lithuania RWCT centres
- 10.00 – 13.00 Mini workshop “Possibilities for developing critical thinking in the modern lesson” /group work/
- 13.00 – 14.00 Lunch

23 February 2000

- 10.00 – 11.00 The presentation of the group work /plenary session/
- 11.00 – 11.30 Coffee brake
- 11.30 – 13.00 The presentation of sociological survey on RWCT project in Lithuania /plenary session/
The presenter - Daiva Penkauskiene (Modern Didactics Center, Lithuania)
- 13.00 – 14.00 Lunch
- 14.00 – 15.00 Hopes and perspectives for the future. Possibilities for collaboration /group work/
- 15.00 – 15.30 The presentation of group work /group work/
- 15.30 – 16.00 Coffee brake
- 16.00 – 17.00 The presentation of group work. The conclusion and evaluation of the conference work.